

Texas Dude Ranch

May 3 – 7, 2010

Yeehaw! Ride 'em cowboy!

Join New Directions as we travel to the beautiful Texas Hill Country. We will be staying at a dude ranch near the town of Bandera, known as the "Cowboy Capitol of the World"! This charming town gives you a feeling of the Old West.

We will enjoy the western-style horseback riding with the wranglers, fine horses, and scores of scenic trails through the hills or along the riverside.

Many of the guests prefer petting horses to riding them. They will enjoy the hiking, tennis, basketball, volleyball, ping pong, horseshoes, shuffleboard, billiards, and of course the sparkling and refreshing heated pool and hot tub.

The ranch is also noted for delicious meals, cookouts, steak barbecues, and hayrides.

We will also be taking a day trip into San Antonio to see the famous Alamo and the Riverwalk.
